

Village of Newfane, Vt. Route 30 Base Map

- Building, with address:
- residential (single unit)
  - residential (multiple unit)
  - accessory building
  - commercial
  - public/cultural
  - not coded

- road or driveway
- sidewalk
- small stream
- large stream
- bridge railing or guard rail
- fence

- Building footprints were digitized by Windham Regional Commission from a map developed by Monroe Whitaker of Stevens and Associates, Brattleboro, Vt. in 1999. The map was compiled from 1:5000 orthophotos and extensive field mapping. The data were developed to show the approximate location, size, shape, and orientation of buildings in the village for cartographic purposes.

- Building use codes and addresses are from Enhanced 911 data and from WRC.

- Road and sidewalk locations were digitized by Windham Regional Commission from a map developed by Monroe Whitaker of Stevens and Associates, Brattleboro, Vt. in 1999. The map was compiled from 1:5000 orthophotos and extensive field mapping. The data were developed to show the approximate location and extent of roads and sidewalks in the village for cartographic purposes.

Map produced by Windham Region Commission, Brattleboro, Vt.
This map is a generalized base map of the Route 30 corridor in the village of Newfane, Vermont, and is to be used for general reference and planning purposes only.